

Application for a full membership

Dear nature photographer,

thank you for your interest in becoming a member and supporting the GDT's aims and ideas.

As you may know, every autumn the GDT hosts Europe's most renowned nature photography festival that regularly draws several thousand visitors.

In addition, the GDT runs two annual competitions that attract great interest across the world and that are exhibited at various national and international venues.

1. GDT Nature Photographer of the Year (GNPY)

This competition is open to GDT members from Germany and abroad only.

2. GDT European Wildlife Photographer of the Year (GDT EWPY)

This competition is open to all amateur and professional photographers resident in Europe and to GDT members.

The members' magazine GDT-Intern is published three times a year. Four times a year the GDT publishes the high-quality magazine 'forum naturfotografie', which is distributed by Tecklenborg publishing house.

To accompany the European competition the GDT also publishes an exhibition catalogue in cooperation with Tecklenborg publishing house.

As a GDT member you will receive concessions at all the GDT events and we will post the members' magazine, latest leaflets and information to you. A specialist insurance to suit your photographic needs exclusively for GDT members as well as a membership with the exclusive Canon Professional Service (Germany and Switzerland only) whether or not you are using professional Canon equipment round off the offer.

All this for a current annual membership fee of € 85 for private sponsor members (natural persons)! Students, pupils and unemployed persons pay a fee of € 40 when they present a copy of the appropriate certification. The fee for members who live out-of-state is € 103 due to higher postage costs for the dispatch of the GDT publications.

The annual fee is being collected at the beginning of the year.

Business people, legal entities and associations pay a fee of annually € 250. They will receive a bill by the beginning of each calendar year, which has to be paid within 4 weeks after receipt.

To complete your application, please fill in the enclosed application for admission/ personal information sheet and return it to the office. Your membership fee in cash (just applicants from abroad) can be send to the GDT office. After that, we will send you with the beginning of each year a demand for the fees.

Thank you for your interest!
