

Lecture program

We are going to offer simultaneous interpreting German to English and English to German for everyone visiting the lectures on Saturday and Sunday. Please read up all the necessary information on our website in due time and book your headset online!

Saturday, Oktober 27

- 9:15 Espen Bergersen (NO): A Norwegian whale tale
- 10:10 Sebastian Hennigs, GDT (DE): Dangerous heritage
Natural treasures on former military training areas
- 10:40 BREAK
- 11:40 SHORT LECTURES
1. Birgit Potthoff, GDT(DE): Icescapes – Setting off to inner landscapes
 2. Wilfried Vogel, GDT (DE): Plant dreams – Subjects between day and night
 3. Project Wildes Ruhrgebiet (DE): Moments of urban nature
- 12:10 Theo Bosboom, GDT (NL) – Shaped by the Sea
- 12:50 LUNCH BREAK
- 15:00 Javier Aznar González de Rueda (ES): The amazing world of insects – Life on the limit
- 15:30 Jo-Anne McArthur (CA): Animals in the Anthropocene – Our Cameras as Tools for Change
- 16:00 Gunther Wegner (DE): Modern timelapse photography with the DSLR
- 16:30 BREAK
- 17:30 Audience award
- 17:40 Carlton Ward Jr. (US): Florida Wild – Hidden in Plain Sight

Sunday, Oktober 28

- 9:15 Regional Group 10 Saxony / Saxony-Anhalt (DE): Natural treasures of Central Germany
- 9:55 Klaus Nigge, GDT (DE): Mbuni – The great bird of Africa
- 10:35 BREAK
- 11:35 Milan Radisics (HU): New perspectives – Fascinating waterscapes from above
- 12:10 Bruno D'Amicis, GDT (IT): The Secret of the Giants
Discovering Europe's oldest beech forests
- 12:40 LUNCH BREAK
- 15:00 Dorin Bofan (RO): Terra Silva – Romania's forests between art and conservation
- 15:30 Christoph Kaula & Jessica Winter, GDT (DE): The Ural owl in Austria - The return of an indigenous species
- 16:00 Last but not least: Conclusion of the festival