

LECTURE PROGRAM

We are going to offer simultaneous interpreting German to English and English to German for everyone visiting the lectures on Saturday and Sunday. Please read up all the necessary information on our website in due time and book your headset online!

Saturday, October 25

- 9:30 Opening of the International Nature Photography Festival 2025
- 9:45 Jan Piecha & Dominik Janoschka, GDT (DE): Raccoon capital of Germany
- 10:20 Aaron Gekosky (GB/PH): Conflict zones
Reporting from the frontline of conservation
- 10:50 BREAK
- 12:10 Keith Wilson (AU/GB): Greenland Before
- 12:30 Kai Hornung (DE): Finding Small
- 12:55 Theo Bosboom, GDT (NL): Flowerscapes – A bug's eye view
- 13:20 LUNCH BREAK
- 15:20 Agorastos Papatsanis (GR): Mushroom Magic
- 15:45 Klaus Nigge, GDT (DE): Fatal beauty – blue macaws
- 16:30 BREAK
- 18:00 Audience award
- 18:10 Contributions to nature photography
- Tribute to Jim Brandenburg
- Award ceremony for the Honorary Award of the GDT
- 18:45 Morgan Heim (US): New Worlds - In remote Alaska, nature reclaims the ruins of war, and unlocks a photographer's hidden potential

Sonntag, 26. Oktober

- 9:30 Opening
- 9:40 GDT regional group Hesse, Palatinate and Saarland: Region in focus
A mosaic of meadows, forests and rivers
- 10:15 Florian Ledoux (FR): Arctic Intimacy
A Journey Through Silence, Life and Nature's Wonder
- 10:50 BREAK
- 12:00 Kevin Morgans (GB): Puffins - Life On The Atlantic Edge
- 12:30 Ritva Kovalainen & Sanni Seppo (FI): Forests of the North Wind
- 13:15 LUNCH BREAK
- 14:45 Audun Rikardsen (NO): Re-defining the life of Arctic whales
Revealed by new electronic technology and photography
- 15:15 Markus Stock (DE): Nature mysticism - image and sound
- 15:55 Last but not least: Conclusion of the festival

